The activities listed below have been pre-approved by the PD Faculty Sub Committee and your Academic Senate. Smply attend the activity, and then submit the external training through Cornerstone. See PD SharePoint for step-by-step directions. Note: if you sign-in at an event, be sure event coordinators are not submitting Flex on your behalf. If they do, then you do not need to submit anything in Cornerstone.

@One: This organization provides courses in teaching and delivery methods for online courses. Visit their website at http://www.cccone.org/.

Affinity Group Events: All faculty can earn Flex credit for attending events sponsored by MSJC Affinity Groups (e.g., Puente, Umoja).

Amnesty International: All faculty can earn Flex credit for attending Amnesty International events.

Art Gallery: All faculty can earn Flex credit for attending Art Gallery sponsored films and events.

Business & Economics Department Sponsored Forums: The MSIC Business Economics Forum is known for bringing business leaders from around the Inland Empire to discuss business and economic issues. All faculty can receive Flex credit for attending these events.

Ourriculum Development: Associate faculty can earn Flex credit for new course development and course revisions. Additionally, fullcommittee.

Department Meetings: Associate faculty can earn Rex credit for attending department meetings. Department chairs and full-time faculty are not eligible for department meeting Rex credit.

Note: if your department meets to conduct PD or trainings, then full-time faculty can earn Flex; please building).

IDEA Committee Events: All activities sponsored by the IDEA Committee are eligible for Flex credit.

Honors Seminar: All faculty can earn Flex credit for attending the Honors seminars. Those who present are eligible for both Flex credit for preWmBT0 g/u31 13 (th12 Tf168.2 (b) $256Wm320a.2 (b) $25025 u31ti25184.3 Td()]

Library Collection Development/Assessment: All material collections in their teaching areas and make recommendations for purchase and/or removal of obsolete and outdated material.

MSJCBook of the Month Club: All faculty can earn Flex for reading any MSJC book of the month and for attending any meetings or events to discuss the book.

MSJC Faculty Association Meetings: All faculty can earn Flex credit for attending Faculty Association meetings and activities

MSJC Rex Days: All faculty can earn Rex for attending any MSJC Rex Days; these hours will be submitted on your behalf, so no need to submit an external training for any Rex Day attendance.

MSIC Sponsored Lectures at the Western Center for Archaeology and Paleontology Museum: All faculty who attend a MSIC-sponsored lecture at the Western Center for Archaeology and Paleontology Museum can earn flex credit.

Non-Evaluative Observations: All faculty who observe a colleague for the purpose of gaining insight into new teaching methods and to share ideas are eligible for Rex. Note: Faculty who are required to complete a peer review observation for the purpose of submitting a required evaluation are not eligible to receive Rex credit.

Wellness Hike: All faculty who participate in a MSC-sponsored wellness hike can earn Flex credit.

General Reminders: