

---

Assisted Listening Devices in the Classroom

One of the students registered for your class may have a hearing loss and will be using a special piece of equipment called an Assistive Listening Device (ALD). The current brand/model we use here at MSJC, is a William Sound System.

The ALD has a small microphone that we will ask you to wear clipped to your shirt or